HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

TRAVELERS AND DROVERS TAVERN

East of Manlius, Cherry Valley Turnpike. Oran - Onondaga County.

The date of this house is fixed in the oval design of the gable, 1825. The early function of the building is revealed in the old Inn sign at the stable end, "ENTERTAINMENT FOR TRAVELERS AND DROVERS."

The house was built by Elisha Stanley of Cazenovia at the foot of Oran Hill on the line of Onondaga and Madison counties.

The place changed ownership several times after the death of Mr. Stanley. It came into the possession of Noah Palmer in 1870.

The brick used was made by hand on the premises.

The present owners of this house are Mr. and Mrs. Melville Clark.
